

I dont want uninvited persons on my phone anymore than I want them at my front door. I know how to get ahold of anyone I need, and surely I dont need perfect strangers calling me at all hours to try to sell me something I didnt ask for. Leave our protection as it is. Telemarketers DO NOT have the right in invade my privacy.